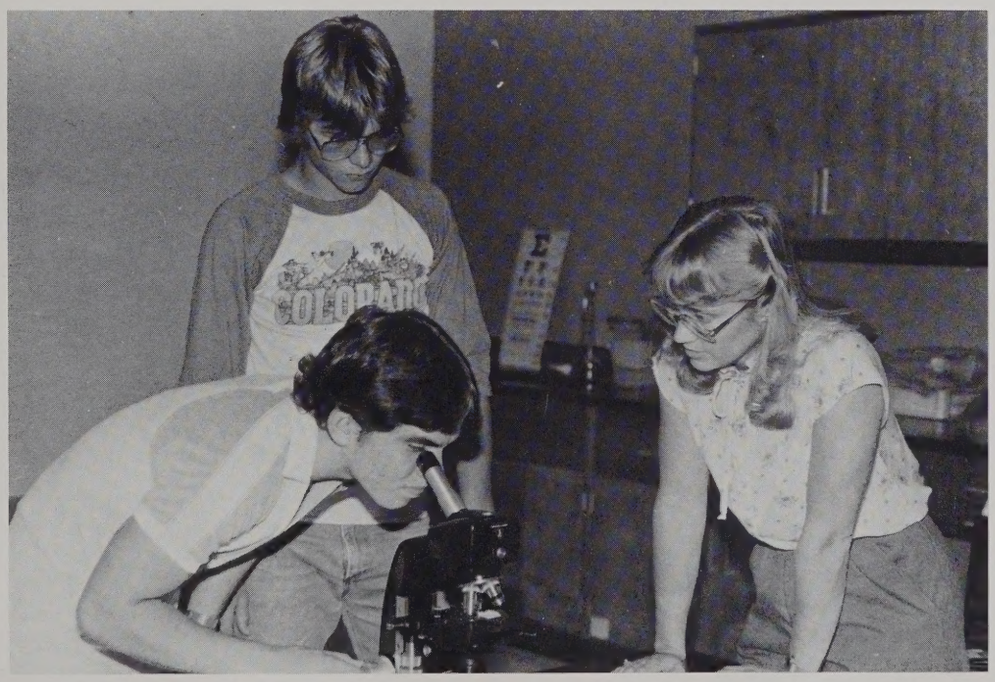
ANOTHER DAY, ANOTHER LAB...

WELCOME KIDDIES!



Greenville College isn't any one thing. It is a feeling of being young and having fun. It is making memories that will last a lifetime; and most of all, it is laying the groundwork of our christian and educational lives.

Matt and Ann we dedicate this yearbook to you for the many ways in which you have dedicated yourselves to serving us. You have shared your wisdom in areas that directly apply to our needs in this modern world. You have given faith to our learning, so that we may better serve God. You have shared not only your family, but your home, in providing us with home-cooked meals on many occasions. It is for all that you are, all that you do, and all that you mean to us, the students of Greenville College that we dedicate this 1982-83 yearbook to you. "In as much as you have done it unto the least of these, you have done it unto me." [Matt. 24:40]

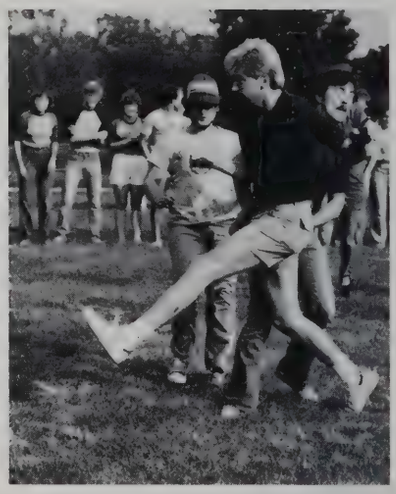
CAMPUS

LIFE

All College Picnic



Intramurals

In my four years at Greenville College, I have been involved in many of the intramural activities offered on this campus. Basketball, softball, soccer, flag-football and volleyball are the main intramural events, and all of them bring excitement, competition and followship. Intramurals improve one's character and teach us how to interact with others in a more Christian way, as we grow closer together and learn how to better respond in awkward situations.

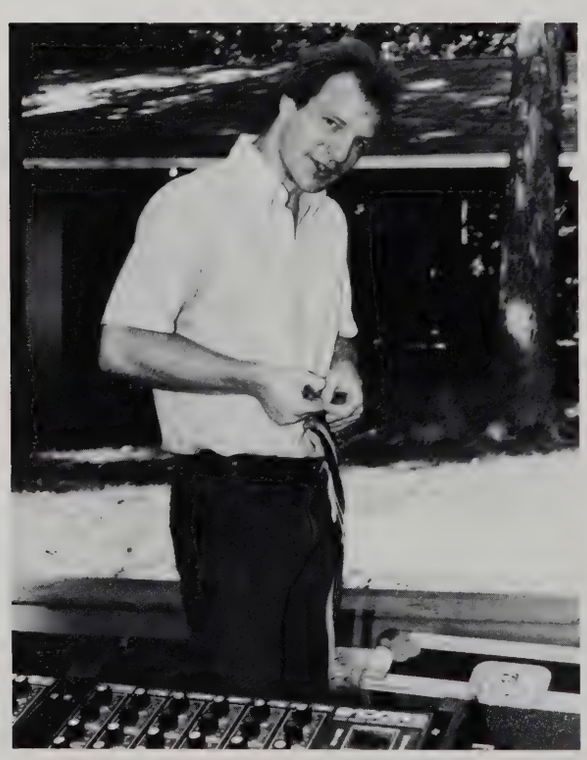
— Brian Dossett

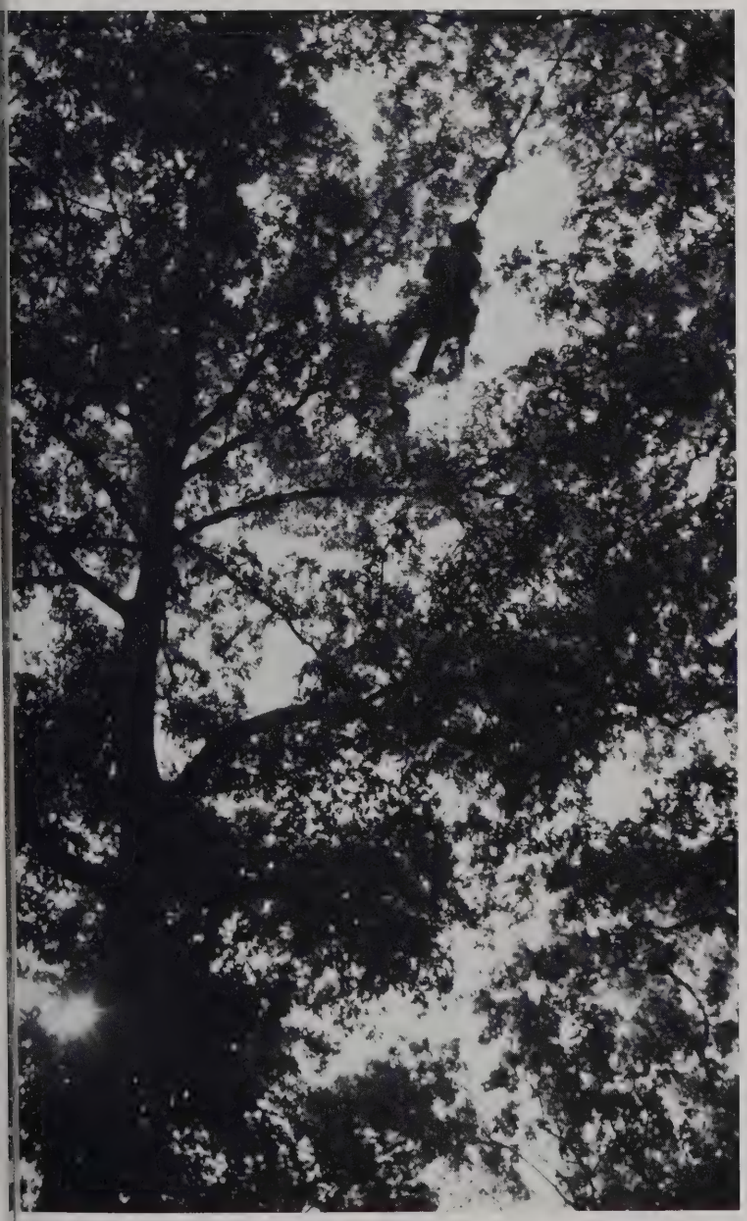
All-College Hike

We walk, we run! It's an early "welcome break" in the established routine of things. It's fun, sweet, and jeers — everything from mud wrestling, greased pigs, to a high lift swing to campfire devotions and a walk home with a new and special friend.

It is a most memorable tradition for Marilyn and me. It was our "first date" over 30 years ago!

—Jim Reinhard





This Is Your Life

Dr. Frank Thompson

This Is Your Life

Surprise. Joy. Delight. Wondering disbelief. Love. How could I, whose life has been lived on both coasts of the United States, and in the middle, too, ever have the experience of a "This Is Your Life?" These words and this question, and more, formed a kaleidescopic whirl in my head and heart that Friday evening. The Women of Elpinice did it! I could not see how they could have done it with such absolute secrecy! The dominant, enduring impression after such an evening of over-stimulation as family and friends from Seattle, Alaska, Minneapolis, Ste St. Marie, and Bond County appeared to share with the audience the delights of the many events of life we had lived through together, is that God has blessed me beyond measure with relationships which reach into many spheres of activity. It is a solemn experience to have persons from every part of one's life assemble at one time to say words of love. I am the richer, and from time to time I find myself sharing with myself a secret grin of admiring appreciation. They did it!

Homecoming

What does one say about the honor of being chosen Homecoming Queen? In all honesty, it was honor enough for me to be allowed to become a part of Greenville College, to spend four years under the guidance of wise, caring professors and supportive friends, and observe as well as participate in the rich traditions held here. And then to be chosen Homecoming Queen — it was overwhelming. So many others are much more deserving — why me? It is a privilege, and an honor, and I am very grateful. Now and forever, to God be the glory!

ROSSIGNOL

The Colorado Semester grew out of the experimental stage in 1983 and earned a permanent position as a unique and strong academic program. Forty-five different students during the first two years spent a semester with Dr. McHenry and his family at the Ayers Center near Manitou Springs. Their living and learning experience centered on the life, land, history, and literature of the American West.

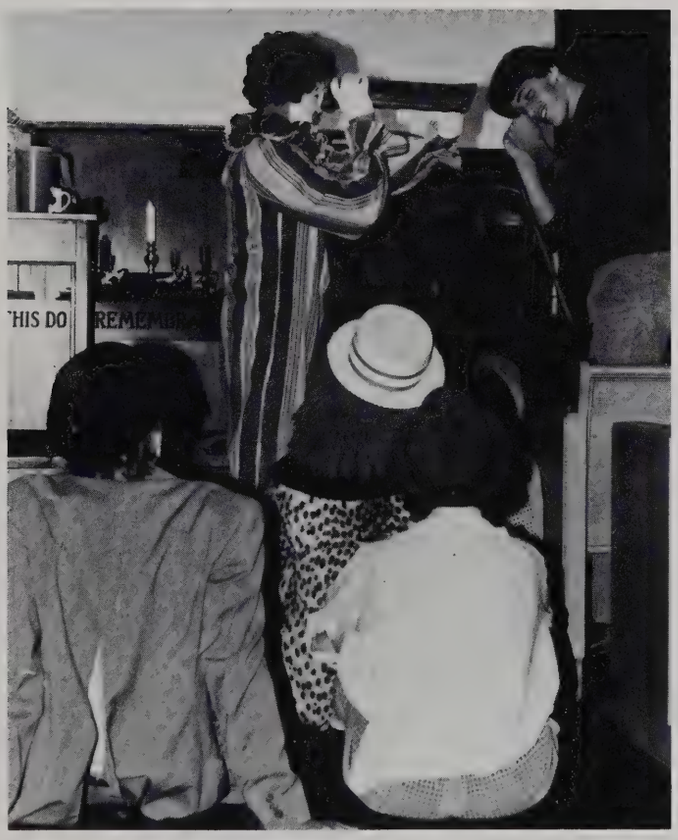
Discovering Clowns



Christian clowns love people and accept them as they are and where they are. They are never pushy or over-bearing; forcing themselves or their ideas on others. They wait to be invited into someone else's space. They respect another's individual personhood and privacy.

To be a fool for Christ's sake is to raise the other person up to greatness and place one's self second. Clowns make people smile because they are so human. They exaggerate all the bad that people go through and still come out laughing — not at others — but at themselves. Through clowning, one learns to laugh at himself a little more and becomes more aware of his self-worth as a Child of God.

G.C.'s clowns visited the hospital in Colorado Springs; distributed balloons in downtown Greenville; presented the Music Machine in nearby churches; and laughed together in chapel because, as they say, "Jesus cracks me up."

G. F. Handel's Messiah

On December 5, 1983, the College-Community Chorus of Greenville, Illinois, presented the annual presentation of G. F. Handel's magnificent oratorio "The Messiah." This tradition was begun in December of 1916. The annual tradition did not begin until 1939. This year was the fifty-second anniversary for this yearly event.

The Board of Trustees is composed of thirty members who represent the seven Free Methodist Conferences and the Alumni Association along with several members-at-large. The Board is responsible for approving budgets, business transactions, and the selection of the President. They also approve all new faculty members and candidates for degree and honor programs. Each year the Board members visit the Greenville College campus to meet with student committees and discuss any problems that the student body might have. Even though they are not always present on our campus, the Board of Trustees is always with us in spirit.
